MERRY XMAS

and a Bright and Prosperous

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Mutual Christmas Party

The 2nd Ward Mutual held a very successful Christmas party Tuesday night and there was a large crowd present to enjoy the evening.

Mary Fairbanks, Mutual Chorister led the group in community singing and the songs were dramatized in tableau form making a very impressive sight.

A Christmas story was told by Miss Vivian Reville.

Solo, "O Come All Ye Faithful" by Glen Walker, accompanied by the Chorus.

Vocal Trio, Mrs. L. J. Hawkins, Mrs. L. D. Watson and Miss White Mitchell.

A musical play was presented by the Reville group directed by Mrs. Melba Atwood.

The orchestra played "Jolly Old St. Nicholas" and the group formed in a grand march around the hall, and then while "Jingle Bells" was played by the Orchestra, Santa Claus appeared and as the crowd marched past the golly decorated tree he handed out gifts for everyone.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker were Calgary visitors last week-end.

After a rather cold night Tuesday with a couple of three inches of snow, the weather had aided Wednesday night, although the north wind remained quite sharp. Tuesday however was a pleasant day for the latter part of December.

FREE MATINEE FOR KIDDIES

In continuation of the Capitol Theatre's policy in having a FREE childrens matinee every Holiday Season, this years event will be held on Friday, December 29th at 2:15 p.m.

A special super program has been arranged to include a complete Walt Disney Program. Featuring attraction will be Walt Disney's "DUMBO" plus an array of Disney shorts.

All children under the age of 13 will be guests of the Capitol Management. Send the kiddies for an afternoon of joy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Selman have recently heard from a captured German admiral whom they saw in France, who is prisoner of war in Germany. He is as well as can be expected and has been transferred to another camp in the northern part of the country.

Following our usual custom there will be no issue of the Recorder between Christmas and New Year's. The next issue will be the first Friday in 1945.

This will give us time to recover from the effects of the Christmas storm and the strain of the weeks preceding Christmas. So we bid good-bye to 1944 with wishes for the holidays of peace and happiness and success in the coming year.

Seasons Greetings

We appreciate the opportunity the season gives of saying Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to our many readers and friends. Yuletide comes again with the world at war, and sorrow in the hearts of many hundreds of families across our big Dominion. Disappointed in the circle being broken, the smile and hand shake that would have cheered us on our way, many, many hearts must now look to the Savior for all mankind for the solace that only He can give.

The peoples of the world are paying a terrific price, in blood sweat and tears in the present struggle. Believing as we do, and as all the Allies do, that it is the God-given right of man to choose his life a what he'll be and enjoy a goodly measure of freedom, we labor and sweat and sacrifice our sons and daughters, to buy that freedom in the hope that out of it all may come a worthwhile and a lasting peace. It is in a way very strange that while we boast of our progress and our civilization, we spend the efforts of science, money, and research and all our other resources in the destruction of men, materials and nations. It will take generations of time and millions of money to repair the damage of this terrible carnage. Somehow it just doesn't add up.

How nice it would be if we could see the day when every man could greet his neighbor as a brother & a friend. This is the essence of true Christianity and true religion. This is what the Master meant when He said "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Certainly it is a far cry from the selfishness, the greed and avarice, the hypocrisy and the meanness that rules the world today, to a time when all men shall hail each other as a brother and a friend and peace shall reign over the world.

What can we do to make this a Merry Christmas? What is our responsibility in assisting to bring order out of chaos and help establish true Christianity in the world. We can't think over this phrase.

"Example, shed a genial ray, That other men may apt to follow; So first improve yourself today, and then improve your friend to-morrow."

If all we who claim to be Christians could live the Golden rule, if we could obliterate hate and envy, between groups and individuals, if we could obliterate hate and envy, the world as a reality instead of a beautiful expanding sphere but for the first improve yourself today, and then improve your friend to-morrow.

We are thankful for the peace, the security, the prosperity and the quiet that we enjoy. We are glad to express to all of you our sincere wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Christmas Parties for Primary Children

On Thursday evening the children of both wards were entertained by the Primary organizations of both wards. Good programs were held in each ward featuring the Xmas carols stories and tableaux. Good crowds were present in each ward and gifts were handed out to every boy and girl in attendance.

In the 2nd Ward the program was held in the Chapel end of the building and their all marched into the recreation hall and grouped around the two large Christmas trees and were given their gifts by Jolly Old St. Nicholas who jumped in with his bells ringing.

A similar program was followed in the 1st Ward and the kiddies eyes bulged as Santa came in with frost on his chin and the breath of winter in the air. Good crowds and good times are reported from both wards.

The regular monthly meeting of the Raymond Women's Institute was held last week in the form of a Christmas program.

After singing "O Canada" the group joined in the following Christmas carols "Silent Night," "Joy to the World," "O Come All Ye Faithful" and "Jingle Bells." A dinner was served by the Committee in charge.

The following program was then carried out:

Recitation by Dorcas Jamieson, "A C.W.A.C.'s Christmas."

Piano Solo by Mrs. Emma Dahl, "The Holy City."

The twenty members present moved on the approval of the minutes and a short financial report was read. Mrs. June Alfred moved that a donation of $50.00 be made to the new Hospital, and this was seconded by Mrs. C. W. Lamb.

Mrs. Hall thanked all the members for their help in filling ditty bags during the past year and then collected the articles to fill the final one for 1944.

The committee was thanked for the lovely hearty vote of thanks for the lovely chicken dinner served. Mrs. A. C. Winkler asked that the quilting for the Red Cross be postponed until early in January.

Mrs. Winkler told a story "Christmas Belongs to Everybody" and Miss June Alfred played a Piano Solo, "The Arioso in G."

Mrs. McMullin announced that the

A CHRISTMAS MESSAGE FROM COMMISSIONER BENJAMIN OHAMES

Once again, in the Season of the Birthday of the Christ Child, people want to give or share not only their worldly goods, but the many small happinesses of life that make this, of all seasons of the year, the most unforgettable.

Unfortunately for many people, sharing stops with the Christmas Season. We hear many stories these days, from the occupied countries, they say themselves, that many of them for the first time, know what it is to share—their daily bread—the small luxuries that may, once in a long while, come their way—but most of all, the small incidents of daily living and companionship.

In this sixth Christmas of a world at war we, of The Salvation Army, pause to offer a special prayer of thankfulness that, in the coming year, we may look for Peace, and that this bond of fellowship may be one of the cornerstones. We recognize the gigantic tasks we have to make this a lasting Peace and with the spirit of the Christ Child ever before us, we cannot fail.

Hyrum Fromm was speaker at Rotary on Monday of this week and gave a very interesting and instructive talk on his work at the big air field at Madison. He answered a great many questions and the Rotas kept him busy until long after closing time.

SYMBOLS OF CHRISTMAS

This elements which betoken Christmas are many and varied, ranging from the Eastern Star, the Three Wise Men and the Manger, to flowers and animals, as this case, the reindeer and to children most of all, the reindeer which they picture as speeding Santa Claus on his way from rooftop to rooftop as he distributes gifts to the little ones the world over.

Few children are not familiar with the poem, "A Visit from St. Nicholas," by Clarke Clements Moore. The eight tiny reindeer which pulled Santa in his sleigh are, dear to their hearts, for, even in the mechanized world of today, they know that Santa's appearance the night before Christmas depends entirely on these steeds.

The fact that St. Nicholas lives in a climate of ice and snow accounts largely for the belief that reindeer are his beasts of burden—these anti-

DON'T CONFUSE THE SIGNALS

War came. The manufacture of most civilian goods had to be cut down or stopped to make way for war production. That caused shortages of civilian goods — that was the RED LIGHT

don't jump the YELLOW light

Some restrictions are now being lifted, but it does not mean lots of goods right away. War's demands are still huge and must come first. We can't neglect them just so that some of us here at home can get a little more.

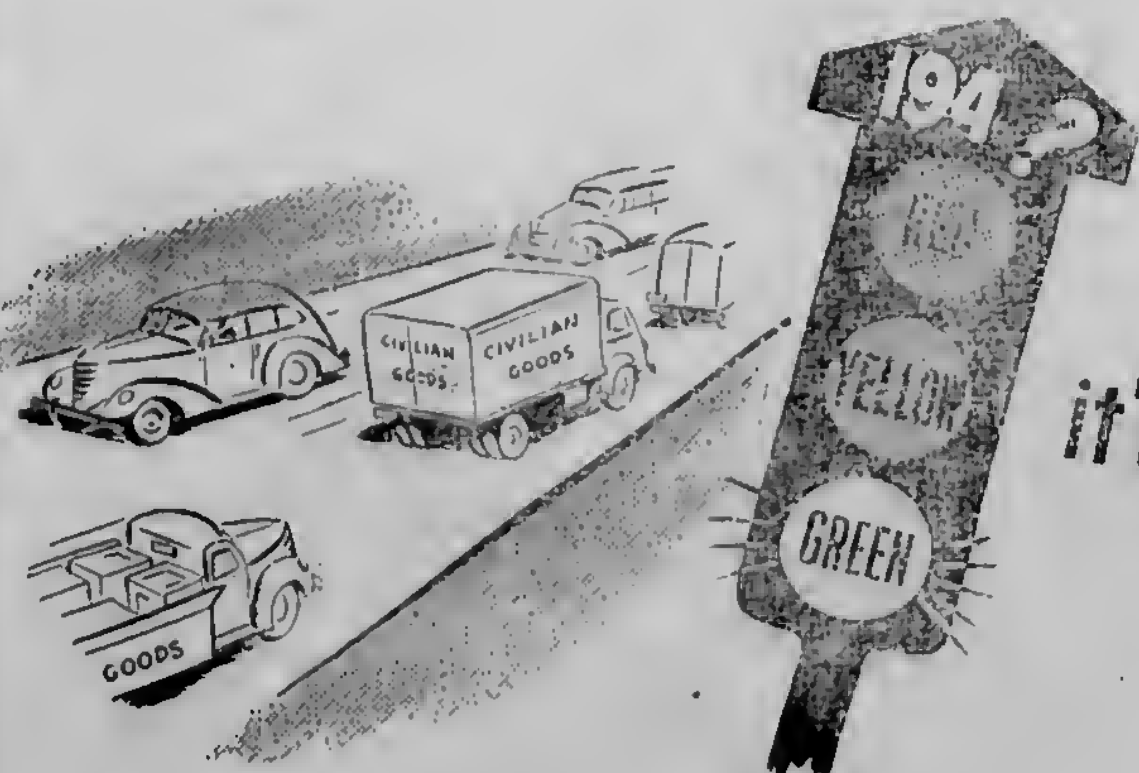

Don't confuse the signals — (This is the YELLOW LIGHT ONLY).

It means a little more of some things and it helps business men get ready for the time when there will be more materials and workers available.

It does not mean the end of shortages!

Getting back to peacetime production will necessarily be piecemeal and gradual.

"Patience" is the word.

it's NOT the green light yet

Only after Victory over both enemies can the Green Light be switched on, and the road cleared for enough production to meet all our civilian needs.

MRS. FRANK BARTOSEK PASSES

Mrs. Frank Bartosek, aged 52, passed away Saturday night after a long illness accompanied by a great deal of suffering.

Born in Czechoslovakia and her husband had resided here for many years and with the family were living on the Meldrum Bros. farm just south of town. Surviving are her husband and four sons and five daughters, one son, Jerry, being in the R.C.A.F.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the Raymond Catholic Church and interment was in the local cemetery with Christensen Bros. in charge. We extend our deepest sympathy to the sorrowing husband and children in their great loss.

HERE'S MY FEED PROBLEM

Have hereditary characteristics a definite effect on young chicks?

HERE'S THE ANSWER

Yes. Vitality, health and bone structure of young chicks depend greatly on the "quality" of its ancestors. And in turn the health, vigour and growth of baby chicks depend largely on the feed you give them. So be sure you have a strong, healthy brood by feeding your laying hens "Miracle" Hatching Mash at least 2 months before you collect eggs for hatching. If you have plenty of farm grain, mix your own feed by using "Miracle" Hatching Mash Supplement.

WEEKLY LETTER

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Merry Christmas—only two words yet year after year they bring from friend to friend a greeting that is given only if sincerely meant. Only two words but no one, since the greeting first had origin has been able to find a better way of expressing it. Only two words, but in them lie wrapped up the happiest memories of our lives.

This is the sixth war Christmas and the dim light kindled at the end of the long dark tunnel five years ago has distinctly brightened. Perhaps this will be our last war Christmas and next year our first of an endless number of "peace on earth" Christmases.

Christmas is the time of greetings the time when people truthfully say nice things to one another. We can truthfully say that Canadians as a whole have every reason to be proud of their efforts in the war year. Coming to our own particular interest as producers of food, we can say they have done an excellent job in spite of many difficulties.

With these thoughts the staff of the Lethbridge Experimental Station give their many friends the old familiar greeting—Merry Christmas.

WHAT WAS THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM?

A considerable literature has been written on the Star of Bethlehem, but without clearing up a mystery. If the exact date of Christ's birth were known there would be no such mystery. The date may have been as early as 11 B.C. or as late as 4 B.C.

There is every reason for believing that our Christmas was not the day of the year on which Christ was born. The church simply carried out a pagan tradition which originally had no relation to Christ's birth. Was the star a bright comet? If so there is no historical account of it that complies with the astronomical facts. For lack of an exact date the comet hypothesis can neither be accepted nor dismissed.

The bible does not purport to be a textbook on astronomy. The narrative of Hesiod and the Wise Men who saw the Star in the East that "went before them, till it came, and stood where the young child was" all to their "exceeding great joy" is intended only to describe an important event and its consequences. We are told simply that a star indicated to the Wise Men that a birth had occurred which was of consequence to the whole civilized world & that the star pointed out the spot where the child was born. It is possible to infer from Matthew 11, 10, that in some way the Wise Men had for a time lost sight of the star, so that the two facts mentioned relate to two separate appearances. Of these two, the first indicated the Wise Men to leave the east and set out for Judea; the second indicated that the place where the birth had occurred was Bethlehem. The star merely served as a guide.

It has been suggested that the Star of Bethlehem may have been the planet Venus, which shines brightly at times. Wise Men who came out of Caldea and who knew their planets were not likely to have made any such mistake.

In some planetaria of the country it is the fashion to follow the devout and learned Kepler by displaying on an artificial sky a conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn which occurred in May, 7 B.C. The two planets could never be so close that they would deceive good eyes.

An English astronomer, the late Professor C. Pritchard, showed that a similar and close conjunction occurred fifty-nine years before 7 B.C. If the conjunction hypothesis is correct it should have brought a delegation of Magi to Judea. It is manifest that if the planets seemed to stand over Bethlehem they would not have appeared to do so when the Wise Men arrived at Bethlehem.

Modern astronomers are inclined to believe that the Star of Bethlehem may have been a supernova—that is a faint star which exploded and shone brightly for weeks and perhaps months. Since supernovas have appeared in historic times, Tycho Brahe saw such a supernova in 1572 in the constellation Cassiopeia. At its brightest it was visible by day, and it outshone Venus. Though it gradually declined in splendor it was visible to the unaided eye (Tycho had no telescope) for sixteen months.

At any rate the supernova hypothesis is the most satisfactory. A sudden stellar apparition was bound to impress practiced star gazers, just as it impresses experienced astronomers today. The supernova hypothesis is little better, than a guess, but that if the planets seemed to stand over Bethlehem they would not have
